

Vannamei shrimps

Litopenaeus vannamei

KLAAS PUUL

— since 1968 —

Vannamei shrimps

Litopenaeus vannamei

Vannamei shrimps are tropical prawns that are farmed in areas near the equator, generally along the coast in artificial ponds. This farming is increasingly being certified as sustainable in accordance with the GlobalGAP, BAP or ASC standard. Under ideal conditions, the prawns can grow up to a length of 20 centimeters. These prawns are extremely popular and gaining more and more popularity.

- Scientific name: Litopenaeus vannamei
- Origin: Aquaculture Ecuador, India, Thailand, China, Vietnam, Indonesia, Nicaragua, Honduras
- Flavour: Sweet, meaty
- Characteristics: Grey shell, which turns orange after cooking
- Availability: Farmed, all year round
- Catch method: Cultivated
- Catch Season: March – December
- Available in: Raw, Blanched, Cooked

Available as:

HOSO	HLISO	PDTO	PUD	PD
head on, shell on	headless, shell on	peeled, deveined, tail on	peeled, undeveined	peeled, deveined

Available in:

FRESH FROZEN

KLAAS PUUL

since 1968

Lupinestraat 1 | 1131 JT Volendam | the Netherlands | Tel: 0031 (0) 299 - 364 247

www.klaaspuul.com