

Black Tiger Prawns

Penaeus monodon

KLAAS PUUL

— since 1968 —

Black Tiger Prawns

Penaeus monodon

The Black Tiger Prawns which Klaas Puul supplies are farmed in Asia, in ponds laid out along the coast. This giant prawn can grow up to a length of 30 centimeters. We supply various types of Black Tiger prawns, peeled or in the shell, with and without head.

- Scientific name: Penaeus monodon
- Origin: Aquaculture Bangladesh, India, Vietnam, Indonesia
- Flavour: Slightly sweet, meaty
- Characteristics: Hard, thick shell with dark stripes; Orangey red after cooking
- Availability: All year round
- Catch method: Cultivated
- Catch Season: March – December
- Available in: Raw, Blanched, Cooked

Available as:

HOSO

head on, shell on

HLSO

headless, shell on

PDTO

peeled,
deveined,
tail on

PD

peeled,
deveined

Available in:

FRESH

FROZEN

KLAAS PUUL

— since 1968 —

Hyacintenstraat 16 | 1131 HW Volendam | the Netherlands | Tel: 0031 (0) 299 - 364 247

www.klaaspuul.com